

When I was little I had a lot of Mickey Mouse stuffed animals, my mom worked and couldn't take care of me, so my grandmother took care of me all week,

My grandmother told me that once she went to take care of me, she saw that one of my stuffed animals moved, she says that I was in my room playing with my Mickey Mouse stuffed animals and she went to the kitchen and when she turned around she saw my teddy running and my grandmother got scared,

When my grandmother came back to my room, my micky mouse stuffed animal was with me.

When my grandmother saw that Mickey Mouse stuffed animal walk, we sold it because my grandmother was afraid of it.

Since then I have also been afraid of stuffed animals because I think that at some point they are going to move
